

Document Resources

The collection of information resources in print and electronic media covers all subjects in the thrust areas of the University plus subjects of general interest. Central Library is the repository of M.Sc. / Ph.D. theses submitted to various faculties of the University. The prestigious collection of about 8000 back volumes of Indian and Foreign Journals is the centre of attraction to the students, teachers and scientists all over India. DVDs related to contemporary issues such as biotechnology, climate change, water, tsunami, pollution, renewable energy, etc. are also available.

Document Processing

Books and other library documents are classified according to Dewey Decimal Classification Scheme and bar-coded. Online Public Access Catalogue (OPAC) will assist to locate the documents.

<http://14.139.185.57/cgi-bin/koha/opac-main.pl>
